ABSTRACT

This is the ninth module of 10 in the German Headstart program. The single unit in the module contains objectives, exercises, and a self-evaluation quiz. In addition, there are several supplementary exercises and self-evaluations. The objective of this module is to familiarize the student with some of the terminology used by military personnel in the Federal Republic of Germany. (AMH)

MODULE 9

INTRODUCTION

This is the last module of the Headstart Program. Since most of you will have to function in a military environment in Germany, you should be familiar with some of the terminology used by our NATO partner, the Federal Republic of Germany.

Many of the phrases you are going to learn in this module will be useful to you in finding your way around the countryside, and in communicating with your counterparts in the Bundeswehr, the Federal Defense Forces.

Take your time with this module, for it not only acquaints you with a portion of the German military scene, but also reviews important features of previous modules.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this module, you will be able to:

a. Ask how to get to particular German military facilities and units, ask how far they are, and understand general directions on how to get there by car.

b. Understand and say the names of common German military facilities and units.

c. Recognize and say most enlisted and officer ranks of the German Army and their respective command titles.

d. Identify yourself in German as an American soldier or officer by rank, name, and unit.

e. Answer the question Zu wem wollen Sie? (Whom do you want to see?) with Ich will zu ... (I want to see ...) adding rank, name, and military unit of the person you wish to see.

EXERCISES

AT THE FREEWAY REST STOP

Mike: Excuse me, captain, how do I get to the Grafenwöhr Military Training Area?

German: Take the freeway towards Bayreuth, then Federal Highway 14.

Mike: How far is it?

German: From here only about 25 km on the freeway, 50 km from the exit to Hirschau, then 30 km to the north on the country road via Kaltenbrunn to Grafenwöhr.

Mike: Is the joint command post also there?

German: No, it is about 3 km to the west. Whom do you want to see there?

Mike: I want to see the American liaison officer, LTC Jones.

German: Oh, you want to go to Moltke Barracks.

IN EINER AUTOBAHNRASTSTÄTTE

Mike: Entschuldigen Sie, Herr Hauptmann*, wie komme ich zum Truppenübungsplatz Grafenwöhr?

Deutscher: Fahren Sie die Autobahn Richtung Bayreuth, dann Bundesstraße 14.

Mike: Wie weit ist es?

Deutscher: Von hier nur etwa 25 km auf der Autobahn, 50 km von der Ausfahrt bis Hirschau, dann 30 km nördlich auf der Landstraße über Kaltenbrunn nach Grafenwöhr.

Mike: Ist der gemeinsame Gefechtsstand auch da?

Deutscher: Nein, der ist etwa 3 km westlich. Zu wem wollen Sie da?

Mike: Ich will zum amerikanischen Verbindungsoffizier, Oberstleutnant Jones.

Deutscher: Ah, da wollen Sie zur Moltke-Kaserne.

---

*In addressing an enlisted soldier or an officer Herr is used before the rank. There is no equivalent to our "Sir" besides the combination of Herr plus the rank without the last name. The phrase "mein Herr" is never used in the military.
